

Halloween Party Games and Activities for Small Homes:

10 Easy Ideas

- Murder Mystery Dinner: Guests arrive dressed as assigned characters and work together over dinner to solve a "crime."
- Costume Contest with Awards: Hand out prizes in fun categories like Scariest, Funniest, and Best Group Costume so more guests go home a winner.
- Pumpkin Painting Station: Set out small pumpkins, paint, and brushes for a no-knife craft that guests of any age can enjoy.
- Spooky Cocktail and Mocktail Bar: Offer a short menu of themed drinks, with alcohol-free versions, so guests can serve themselves.
- Scary Movie Night: Dim the lights, pass the popcorn, and screen a mix of classic horror and family-friendly Halloween favorites.
- Haunted House Makeover: Turn your small home into a spooky walk-through with dim lighting, cobwebs, and eerie props in every room.
- Halloween Dance Party: Build a playlist of spooky favorites like "Thriller" and ask guests to add their own picks.
- Enchanted Garden Party: Move the party outdoors with candlelit tables, cobweb-draped trees, and soft string lights.
- Bobbing for Apples: Bring back the classic party game, with a grown-up twist for adult crowds.
- Haunted Gingerbread House Decorating: Swap the holiday version for a spooky one that guests decorate with dark icing and candy.